

LRCA Facebook Policy

The Lagotto Romagnolo Club of America has created the LRCA Facebook page to serve as a forum for people to share their experiences and/or questions regarding the Lagotto Romagnolo in a positive manner. The LRCA Facebook page is open to all who are interested in learning more of this enchanting breed. You do not need to be a member of the LRCA.

To achieve an effective forum, we work hard to establish a safe and respectful place for networking. This requires us to make decisions and balance concerns about free expression and community respect. Therefore we do have a few rules that all members must adhere to at all times. Discussion on the LRCA Facebook page shall provide an open forum for civil and courteous debate of topics, not of persons. Debate and disagreement based on the merits of the comment are welcome. Inflammatory or derogatory personal comments, insulting language or name calling, as well as comments regarding the supposed motives of another list member are not allowed. Any post that steps outside these bounds will be removed by the administrators.

Additionally, no advertising for dog/puppy sales or merchandise is allowed on this page. Any postings to that effect will promptly be removed by administrators.

May 19, 2015 Blog post from Kerin Jacob-Schwartz, Corresponding Secretary, on behalf of the LRCA Board of Directors.